

At a Glance / OHIO

For more than 185 years, Duke Energy Ohio and its predecessor companies have provided safe, clean, affordable and reliable electric and natural gas to customers across southwest Ohio.

There are nearly 1,878 employees and 3,689 retirees across the state, which encompasses approximately 2,109 square miles.

Ohio Service Area

Service Territories (counties served)

■ Duke Energy

Economic Development

Duke Energy in Ohio makes a difference in the economy of each community it serves through:

- Strategic partnerships with local, state and regional organizations to promote the 10 counties in southwest Ohio and attract and retain investment in the community.
- Site readiness and business development efforts to evaluate one large tract of property in preparation for future investment.
- Strategic financial contributions totaling more than $27 million to regional economic development initiatives since 2007.

We've also collaborated with local economic development partners to help attract billions of dollars in capital investments – and thousands of jobs – to southwest Ohio.

Community Investment

The Duke Energy Foundation is proud to power the vitality of our communities through philanthropy focused on vibrant economies; climate resiliency; and justice, equity and inclusion.

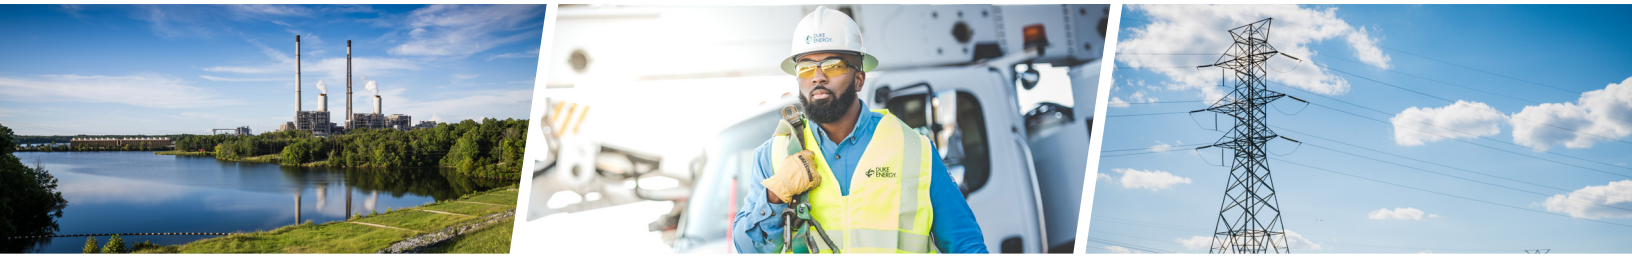

Duke Energy and its Foundation were responsible for more than $2 million in charitable contributions in Ohio in 2024.

Duke Energy employees in Ohio contributed more than $500,000 to nonprofits through volunteer hours and financial donations.

Region-Specific Operational Facts

- 765,000 electric and 457,000 natural gas customers in southwest Ohio
- Virtually all available customers in Ohio have certified digital meters, and the company has installed automated equipment on the distribution system to reduce and prevent customer outages
- 1,400 miles of transmission lines and 16,821 miles of distribution lines
- 50 miles of natural gas transmission main lines and 6,068 miles of natural gas distribution main lines

About Duke Energy

Duke Energy (NYSE: DUK), a Fortune 150 company headquartered in Charlotte, N.C., is one of America's largest energy holding companies.

The company's electric utilities serve 8.6 million customers in North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky and collectively own approximately 55,100 megawatts of energy capacity. Its natural gas utilities serve 1.7 million customers in North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Ohio and Kentucky.

Duke Energy is executing an ambitious energy transition, keeping customer reliability and value at the forefront as it builds a smarter energy future. The company is investing in major electric grid upgrades and cleaner generation, including natural gas, nuclear, renewables and energy storage.

More information is available at duke-energy.com.

The Duke Energy News Center contains news releases, fact sheets, photos and videos. Duke Energy's illumination features stories about people, innovations, community topics and environmental issues.

Follow Duke Energy on X, LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook.

Electric and Gas Utilities Service Areas

