At a Glance / INDIANA

Duke Energy Indiana, a subsidiary of Duke Energy, provides about 6,800 megawatts of owned electric capacity to approximately 930,000 customers in a 23,000-square-mile service area, making it Indiana's largest electric supplier.

At the very foundation of our company is a commitment to serve our customers. We energize our communities and enhance the quality of life for people who live here.

- 930,000 retail customers
- We are the largest electric utility in Indiana with operations headquartered in Plainfield, Ind., providing electric service in 69 of the state's 92 counties.
- In December 2022, we completed a transaction with GIC – a leading global investment firm run by the government of Singapore – for the acquisition of a 19.9% minority interest in Duke Energy Indiana.

Indiana Service Area

Service Territories (counties served)

Duke Energy

DUKE ENERGY®

BUILDING A SMARTER ENERGY FUTURE®

State-specific Operational Facts

- More than 37,000 miles of transmission and distribution lines
- Total capacity of 6,800 megawatts, which includes 12 power generation sites as well as long-term power purchase agreements, and is composed of 54% coal-fired, 32% natural gas-fired, 8% syngas-fired, 3% solar, 1% hydro-powered and less than 1% each of wind, oil-fired and battery

Indiana Taxpayer – Hoosier State Employer

- Paid nearly $63 million in property and use taxes in 2025
- Collected and sent nearly $145 million to the state in sales tax receipts in 2025
- Approximately 2,400 employees
- Approximately $222 million paid in payroll in 2025

Economic Development in Indiana

- In 2025, Duke Energy helped recruit $2 billion in capital investment and more than 1,900 new jobs to Indiana.
- We invested more than $455,000 in our partnerships with local, regional and state economic development organizations to help attract businesses to Indiana in 2025.
- In 2025, we increased our Duke Energy Site Readiness portfolio to 51 sites to help prepare them for new economic development opportunities to grow the communities we serve.

Giving in Indiana

- In 2025, Duke Energy Indiana awarded nearly $2.6 million in shareholder-funded grants from the Duke Energy Foundation.
- In 2025, Duke Energy Indiana employees contributed more than $450,000 through employee matching and volunteer rewards to charitable organizations and more than 16,000 hours of volunteer time.
- In 2025, we dedicated over $450,000 in financial assistance through our Share the Light Fund® to support customers struggling to pay their electric bills.

About Duke Energy

Duke Energy (NYSE: DUK), a Fortune 150 company headquartered in Charlotte, N.C., is one of America's largest energy holding companies.

The company's electric utilities serve 8.6 million customers in North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky and collectively own approximately 55,100 megawatts of energy capacity. Its natural gas utilities serve 1.7 million customers in North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Ohio and Kentucky.

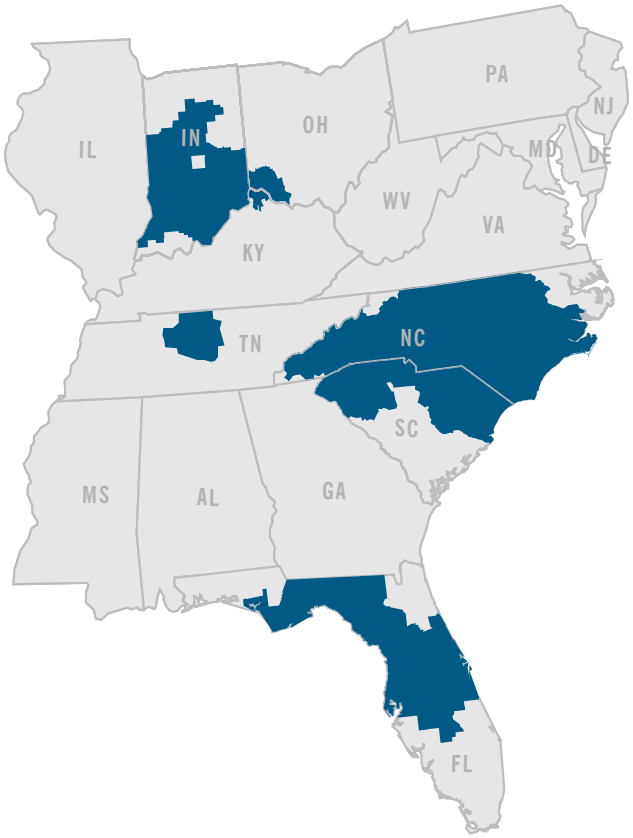
Duke Energy is executing an ambitious energy transition, keeping customer reliability and value at the forefront as it builds a smarter energy future. The company is investing in major electric grid upgrades and cleaner generation, including natural gas, nuclear, renewables and energy storage.

More information is available at duke-energy.com.

The Duke Energy News Center contains news releases, fact sheets, photos and videos. Duke Energy's illumination features stories about people, innovations, community topics and environmental issues.

Follow Duke Energy on X, LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook.

Electric and Gas Utilities Service Areas



©2026 Duke Energy Corporation 251049-1b IN 11/26